Our Mission, Founders, Boards, Officers & Staff

OneCalifornia Bank seeks to improve economic opportunity for low- to moderate-income communities throughout California, starting in Oakland. The Bank partners with respected community institutions to provide banking services to small and medium-size businesses, nonprofit organizations, community facilities, affordable housing, individuals and families.

Banking services are integrated with financial literacy, technical assistance and business education supported by OneCalifornia Foundation, a nonprofit organization. The Bank maintains a triple bottom-line focus of meeting its social mission while operating in a safe, sound and sustainable manner.

OneCalifornia grew from the vision of Tom Steyer and Kat Taylor and the team they formed to create a sustainable, effective community development organization. The couple provided all the capital for the Bank and donated 100% of their shares' economic value to OneCalifornia Foundation, created by them to help the Bank in its mission.

Tom Steyer is an investor, engaged at a senior level with San Francisco firms Hellman & Friedman, LLC, and Farallon Capital Management, LLC. Kat Taylor is active in the Bay Area nonprofit community, having served on the boards of Good Samaritan Family Resource Center, KQED, Yerba Buena Center for the Arts and the Insight Prison Project, as well as with many other public benefit and philanthropic ventures. OneCalifornia Bank's Board of Directors and Advisory Board draws from legal and financial investment sectors and community leaders throughout the Bay Area.
